Dear Sir:-

I cannot find that I have received a statement of my dues or notices of the meetings of the Society for a considerable period.

Will you kindly investigate and let me know whether through any failure of communications to reach me my membership is not in good standing.

Mr. Philip J. Mosenthal,
95 William Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:

On my return, after an absence of over a week, I found your letter of May 3d which had been received while I was away.

I find, on investigation, that through some mistake you were marked on our membership roll as having resigned in the latter part of 1908, and consequently no notices were sent you after that time.

I am at a loss to know how such a mistake could have occurred, and I assure you that it is greatly regretted, the nearest approach to an explanation that I can offer is that one of our members resigned in 1908 and several months later, having probably forgotten about his first resignation, sent us a second one, and this one may have been attributed to you on our Treasurer's books.

I have restored your name to the roll of members, and I enclose herewith a bill for dues for the current year. I am also sending you, under separate cover, a copy of our revised Constitution and By-Laws, which was adopted at the last annual meeting.

Trusting that you will pardon this error, I am, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

H.MOSENTHAL & SON,

Mr. Bauman L. Belden, Secretary,
American Numismatic Society,
156th Street west of Broadway,
New York City

Dear Sir:-

Accept my thanks for your letter of May 14th. I note from the information which you send me that there are now various classes of members.

Will you kindly let me know the privileges of associate members as distinguished from regular members?

I will then determine under which class I may wish to be enrolled.

Your further kind attention will oblige

Yours truly,

Philip J. Mosenthal

May 19, 1910.

Mr. Philip J. Mosenthal,
95 William Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:

I have just received your letter of May 18th.

The only difference in the privileges of members and associate members is that associate members do not have the right to vote at the business meetings, or to hold any elective office, they are not therefore notified of business meetings, they receive the American Journal of Numismatics, have the right to subscribe to the Society's medals and all other privileges of members.

As you will notice in the Constitution that I sent you, the membership list is limited in number, which will make a membership more difficult to obtain, while the associate membership list is unlimited, and we can elect any number of associate members at any time.

If you prefer to change to associate member, you are at perfect liberty to do so, the only thing necessary is to notify me to that effect.

Our list of members, which is printed with the proceedings of the annual meeting, in the American Journal of Numismatics, is now in press, and I am expecting a proof from the printer within the next two or three days, I would therefore be glad to know your decision as soon as convenient, so that, if you decide to make the change in your membership, I can change it on this proof.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

November 30, 1914

The Secretary,
American Numismatic Society,
Broadway & 156th Street,
New York City.

Dear Sir:-

Will you be kind enough to send me information upon the following point:

I have had placed in my possession a $5 gold piece of the year 1800 in very good condition. I am asked to dispose of it at the best price obtainable and to send the proceeds to the Belgian Fund.

Kindly let me know whether the coin can be sold at more than its face value and if so, to whom I would better address myself.

Your attention will oblige,

Very truly yours,

Philip J. Mosenthal

Mr. Philip J. Rosenthal,
35 William Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of November 30th has just been received. Regarding a five dollar gold piece of 1800, I find that the auction records run up as high as ten or eleven dollars for the coin in uncirculated condition, and lower prices, of course, if the condition is not so good. In his premium list, Elder states that he will pay six dollars for the coin in fine condition. I doubt if you could do any better than communicate with either Thomas L. Elder, 32 East 23rd Street, New York; David Proskey (New York Coin & Stamp Company) 11 West 30th Street, New York, or the United States Coin Company, Fifth Avenue Building, Fifth Avenue & 23rd Street, New York.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
